

3-9-9

lean down, lean down ~~to~~

while the lights abdicated, its last shifts caught the sun through the trees. when its gone, its everywhere.

lean down - a glimpse, a just a dogwood leaf that says its name, ~~a reflection~~

a petal
of water

so ambient, ^{so reflected} - closer now so ambient can become incident again.

it won't take long - for ~~the~~ ^{memory to} ~~become~~ ^{from}

~~what ever absence, from now the world~~ over that absence, ~~to~~ become the world, a veil of twilight to mesmerize and blind.

lean down, your face almost on the water, ~~where you reflect~~

~~the reflection of what you're reflected -~~ ~~ambient regards~~

- your ~~then~~ - reflected light.

light is reflected
a petal

if something moves the water, if the water moves, it might show a pearl, a catfish skull, ~~a dead~~ ^{a dead} pine whose bark has ^{peeled away} gone.

but the world will still ~~be~~ ^{be} pearl again - the constellations, the maypole at day - and then you are, dabbidit, where you shouldn't be, where you should,

having made yourself at home and having made yourself at home and having made yourself at at memory
+ at at memory one again.

you shouldn't be here
but you're made up of here.

lean down
~~the~~ ^{while} the lights abated -

when it's gone, it's everywhere, & it's afterward,
w. light is a memory
w. light

it doesn't take long for this to seem normal -

lean down, lean down while the lights pulled away.

lean down, lean down
while the lights abated - its ~~the~~ last utterance of its cluster pulled through the bees when it's gone, it's everywhere - air a memory of light incidents gone without.

slow / slow
catch on.

Reflection (meditation & anti-meditation) falling back to Pastoral also

circularity

The light is faint, is failing - (abandoned - subverted)

ambient now, not incident, and gathered or, rather, formed here,

the comma a kind of lens,

The flower become its own sun,
own light

lean down

The part of starlight & moon to the moon you've become reflecting the reflected reflected reflected light

The water's pulled, pulled, disturbed - you can see beneath, the blue-white note, the pearls -

& then the water pearls over it again and you are there, strong doubtless, when you shouldn't be

all
rest
on
edges
